Safeguarding: Using the Keeping Safe Resource

This course is relevant to you if you:

- have attended a Talking Mats foundation training and are experienced in using Talking Mats with adults or young people
- want to extend your use of Talking Mats and consider its role and application to safeguarding
- want to explore a non threatening way to raise difficult and sensitive topics that helps both the listener and the thinker

Venue: Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists, 2 White Hart Yard, London, SE1 1NX

Cost: £80.00 (excl vat) - includes the Keeping Safe resource .

If you just want to attend the course the cost is £50.00 (excl vat)

The resource explores 3 topics

The Keeping Safe resource gives people an opportunity to reflect on how their lives are going; It supports safeguarding by allowing issues of concern to arise through this supported conversation.

The course gives you a chance to see the resource in action, plan implementation and discuss challenges that may arise
